Student Housing for the Cordova Campus is located adjacent to the main campus at 1975 S. Beaman Circle, just west of the Appling Road and Goodlett Farms intersection. The community building plus 144 apartments, one playground and a multi-purpose recreational field make up MASH. The 144 apartments are broken down into many options: apartments, furnished rooms (Bachelor level students only), commuter units, and missionary apartments. Payment for apartments and furnished rooms is separate from and not included in tuition. Monthly payments may be made by check or automatic deposit, payable to MASH. Please consult the 2014-2015 Student Supplement and Housing Handbook to learn more about MASH.

Apartments

The apartments can be rented by one or more associate, master or doctoral level students at the rates shown below. Furniture and utilities are not included; however, single students have freedom to choose other single roommates to live with. Washer and dryers are included, as well as a refrigerator, dishwasher, disposal. The apartments are zoned for Shelby County Schools, which consist of Dexter Elementary, Dexter Middle, and Bartlett High. There are also many private Christian schools in the area, and an active homeschool network.
