Attendance and Inclement Weather

(Cordova Campus)

Alteration or cancellation of Seminary classes because of inclement weather or natural disaster is announced daily on local radio, television, and student email. Normally, cancellation of regular Seminary classes due to weather or natural disaster coincides with the closing of the Shelby County schools; however, special provisions may be announced. If classes are canceled due to weather or natural disaster on a day of final exams, exams for the missed day will be taken on the day that the Seminary re-opens.

(Northeast Campus)

The Northeast campus will close whenever the Guilderland School District closes, as per the school closing announcements on www.WGY.com or local television stations. However, the Northeast campus is closed only when Guilderland school closings are due to inclement weather or travel advisories.

Chapel services are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:00–11:45 a.m. and both services have required attendance. Students may only miss six services within a given semester. The report for attendance is taking through the online Practical Missions reporting system. Please refer to the Practical Missions Handbook for further information on how to report. The first fifteen minutes are designated as Report Hour for practical missions, where both faculty and students give personal witnessing testimonies. Chapel services also include preaching by faculty, pastors, Baptist leaders, and other special guests. Such worship, inspiration, and Bible preaching make a lasting contribution to the spiritual development of the Seminary family and are an integral part of the total training program. The Northeast campus holds chapel on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Academic Freedom

Students at MABTS enjoy academic freedom. The freedom in Jesus Christ is basic in the atmosphere of a theological seminary. It is desired that students be superior in all phases of their studies, and this necessitates freedom. However, the practice of Christian freedom in this Seminary must come within the framework of responsibility. Academic freedom for both faculty and students is bound by commitment to the “Articles of Religious Belief” of the Seminary and loyalty to the stated purpose of MABTS as adopted by the Board of Trustees.

Student Grievance Policy and Procedure

Seminary policy grants to the administration and faculty of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary the authority to develop and administer the processes for study and other issues related to student life. Students are expected to conform to expectations and standards of performance and conduct. The same policy that establishes the governance of academic and administrative affairs, however, allows the student the opportunity to seek recourse from what they consider to be unfair or unjust evaluations or processes. In the case of doctoral students, grievance procedures and decisions are established and administered by each doctoral committee.

Before completing the following application for grievance for redress, the student should:

1. Review documents that address the situation - syllabi, policies and procedures, etc.
2. Prayerfully consider the validity of the grievance.
3. In keeping with Matthew 18, discuss the issue with the professor or administrator involved.
4. If the issue cannot be resolved at this level, then the student should follow the Student Grievance Process as described below.

It is the policy of the seminary to evaluate seriously student grievances and either resolve the problems brought by the student or make appropriate recommendations to the appropriate office for such resolution. Procedures are established below for addressing student grievances in three sections: academic issues, administrative issues, and ethical conduct issues.

The grievance process described below begins with the completion of a student-initiated application for review, the Student Grievance Form. This form may be obtained from the Campus Life office or from www.mabts.edu. It is the responsibility of the administrative assistant/associate in the appropriate division of the Seminary to coordinate the process for grievance including the scheduling of meetings.

Section I – Academic Grievances

For Grievances of Academic Issues Related to Grades, Course Information, Course Content, Faculty Conduct, Performance, or Attitude
The seminary specifically assigns to the individual faculty member responsibility for establishing grade criteria and the subsequent assignment of grades upon evaluation of student work.

(Matters related to dropping and adding are dealt with by petition through the Registrar's office. Matters related to excessive excused or unexcused absences are dealt with by petition through the Masters and Undergraduate Committee.)

In the case that a discussion of the issue with the professor or administrator involved does not resolve the issue, the following procedure should be followed:

1. The student completes and delivers the Student Grievance Form to the appropriate administrative personnel, who will then contact the appropriate person(s) to attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the department chair will deliver the matter will be addressed by the Academic Vice President, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance. The student may request that a student council representative or another faculty member attend the meeting as well.
3. The Academic Vice President will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Section II – Administrative Grievances

For Grievances of Administrative Issues Related to Support Services

1. The student completes and delivers the Student Grievance form to the appropriate personnel, who will then contact the appropriate person(s) to attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the Executive Vice President, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance. The student may request that a student council representative or another faculty member to attend the meeting as well.
3. The Executive Vice President will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Section III – Sexual Harassment

For Grievances of Academic or Administrative Issues Related to Sexual Harassment

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary respects the personhood of all individuals, regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or religion. The Seminary, therefore, will not tolerate the abuse of individuals in regard to these matters. It is our policy to maintain a workplace free from all forms of harassment, which includes sexual harassment, whether verbal or physical.

Sexual harassment is prohibited by the Seminary’s policy as well as by federal and state law. Sexual harassment includes all unwelcomed sexual overtures or advances including, but not limited to, offensive jokes, comments, innuendos, or other sexually oriented statements; requests for sexual favors; and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as terms or conditions of a student’s academic achievement;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for decisions regarding the student’s academic status;
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a student’s performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive learning environment.

If a student feels that he or she has been subjected to any type of harassment, the offense is to be reported to the president’s office within 48 hours. A written complaint should include the name of the person(s) involved, the specific nature of the offense, and the date it occurred.

The president’s office will conduct a thorough investigation of the complaint, and appropriate remedial action will be taken. Any information as is gathered will be treated as confidentially as practical. Where investigation confirms the offensive behavior, prompt corrective action will be taken with appropriate redress to the complaining party. Students reporting incidents of sexual harassment or cooperating with an investigation thereof will be protected from reprisals in any form. The confidentiality of the parties involved will be protected throughout the investigation, and only those parties whom the President deems necessary to have knowledge of the case will be informed.

Any employee found to be guilty of violating this policy will be disciplined, up to and including termination. Likewise, disciplinary measures will be applied in any instance determined fabricated for malicious reasons.

If the student feels that he or she has been subjected to any type of harassment, the offense may be reported to the president’s office or the student may follow the steps below:

1. The student completes and delivers the Student Grievance Form to administrative personnel who will forward the grievance to the President's office within 48 hours to establish a resolution to the grievance with appropriate personnel.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the President, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
3. After a thorough investigation, the President will make a final decision concerning the grievance.
Section IV – Honor Code

Each Student Agrees:

- I understand and will support and follow the Honor Code.
- I will not personally use unauthorized materials, and I will not participate with others in cheating.
- I will not facilitate cheating, and if I become aware of violations of academic or moral integrity, I understand that I have a responsibility to the seminary community and will at least say something to the student involved or discuss the situation with a professor or the appropriate Dean.

Academic work is evaluated on the assumption and the expectation that the work presented is the student’s own, unless designated otherwise. Anything less is unacceptable and is considered academically dishonest. Collaboration, plagiarism, and cheating—all defined below—are considered forms of academic dishonesty and students guilty of such are subject to disciplinary action.

1. Collaboration: Submission of a paper that is paraphrased from, or identical to, another student’s paper. A “paper” is defined as “any materials submitted by a student for credit in a course.”
2. Plagiarism: Submission of a paper in which substantial portions are paraphrased without documentation or are identical to published or unpublished material.
3. Cheating: The improper use of books, notes, another student’s tests, or other aids during an examination. It is the responsibility of the student to get approval for the use of such aids prior to the time of the examination, and without such approval they will be considered improper. An “examination” is defined as “any testing situation in which the score will be used for credit in a course.”

Failure on a student’s part to live up to this honor code becomes the concern of the appropriate Dean and faculty advisor. (It is assumed, however, that any matter of concern in this area between members of the Seminary community will first be dealt with according to the principles of Matthew 18:15–22.) All disciplinary matters are subject to review before a Student Disciplinary Committer. This Committee at the Cordova Campus is composed of the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, as chairperson, the Faculty Advisor of the student in question, the President of the Student Council, and one other faculty member. At the Northeast campus, this committee will be appointed by the director of the Northeast branch and will include one student participant.

Due process in dealing with disciplinary problems is primarily for the purpose of protecting the reputation of a student against false or unsupported accusations. The purpose of disciplinary action is always redemptive, with every effort made to help the student involved to gain insight into his or her own needs and motivations as a potential minister in Christian service. Where there is evidence of personality and character weaknesses that would make it unwise for a student to continue in preparation for the ministry, the student is given counsel to help him or her see that fact.

A Student Disciplinary Committee will handle all cases referred to it by the appropriate dean and will be the appellate body for decisions made by the dean that are appealed by the student. The committee will handle any case involving the possible dismissal of a student, and dismissal may only take place by action of the faculty. The student will receive a written statement of charges against him or her. He or she may be accompanied by a personal representative, may bring witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may choose not to answer any of the questions directed to him or her. If either the Student Disciplinary Committee or the student deems the advice of a lawyer necessary, such a person may give any advice he or she believes pertinent; but he/she may not enter into the proceedings and/or deliberations of a Student Disciplinary Committee.

Should the situation warrant it, the student may be given a warning, a disciplinary probation, a required leave of absence, or dismissal. Appeal of any action of the Student Disciplinary Committee may be made to the faculty in writing. Further appeal may be made after the faculty’s decision to the President of the Seminary. Such an appeal must be in writing, and a personal interview will be granted with the appeal.

If the student feels that he/she has witnessed a violation of the honor code or if they themselves have violated the honor code, they are take the following steps below:

1. The student completes and delivers the Student Grievance Form to the appropriate administrative personnel, who will then contact the appropriate person(s) to attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the Academic Vice President, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance. The student may request that a student council representative or another faculty member attend the meeting as well.
3. The Academic Vice President will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Student Discipline and the Judicial Process

The Seminary is dedicated to the training of students who are committed to Christian ministries. This type of student greatly reduces the occasion of disciplinary problems. The locus of authority in dealing with discipline problems is the faculty through the Dean of Men or Dean of Women and a Student Disciplinary Committee.

It is the desire of MABTS to be responsive to the needs of the student in all areas of his or her life. As a school we have established policies and procedures in both academic and financial areas as well as personal, moral/ethical, and spiritual development. These policies and procedures are intended to cover most circumstances that may arise; but it is recognized that on occasion there are situations that warrant special, individual consideration.

Ethical and Moral Development

In the area of moral/ethical or spiritual development, the Seminary recognizes the freedom of each student to develop under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. However, it must also be noted that MABTS students are not only preparing for positions of spiritual leadership, but also are already viewed as Christian leaders by men and women in the community. Thus, it is essential that they exemplify a God-controlled life both on and off the campus, conforming to the highest standards of conduct.

All members of the Seminary—trustees, faculty, administrative staff members, or students—assume the responsibility to conduct themselves in compliance with the objectives and standards of the honor code established by the Seminary. Misconduct that renders a member of the Seminary liable for discipline, up to and including dismissal, falls into the following categories:

1. Dishonesty, including cheating, theft, plagiarism, forgery, or giving false information on official documents;
2. Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research administration, or Seminary sponsored activities by force or violence or threat of violence;
3. Physical, verbal, or mental abuse or threat of abuse of a spouse or another member of the Seminary;
4. Theft or damage to Seminary or community property or the personal property of a member of the Seminary community, including taking materials from the library.
5. The use of tobacco, alcohol, or controlled substances;
6. Solicitation to or participation in immoral relationships, including but not limited to sodomy, adultery, and sex outside of marriage;
7. Viewing or participating in pornography;
8. Participation in spousal abuse, whether physical, verbal, mental, or psychological;
9. Unauthorized entry to or use of Seminary facilities or equipment;
10. Failure to comply with directions of the president or other officers of the Seminary when acting in the performance of their duties;
11. Conduct which adversely affects the member’s suitability as a member of the Seminary community or which interferes with the rights and privileges of another member of the Seminary community; and
12. The willful commission of any acts which result in a criminal charge and conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction.
Honor Code

Each student agrees:

- I understand and will support and follow the honor code.
- I will not personally use unauthorized materials, and I will not participate with others in cheating.
- I will not facilitate cheating, and if I become aware of violations of academic or moral integrity, I understand that I have a responsibility to the seminary community and will at least say something to the student involved or discuss the situation with a professor or the appropriate Dean.

Academic work is evaluated on the assumption and the expectation that the work presented is the student’s own, unless designated otherwise. Anything less is unacceptable and is considered academically dishonest. Collaboration, plagiarism, and cheating—all defined below—are considered forms of academic dishonesty and students guilty of such are subject to disciplinary action.

1. Collaboration: Submission of a paper that is paraphrased from, or identical to, another student’s paper. A paper is defined as any materials submitted by a student for credit in a course.
2. Plagiarism: Submission of a paper in which substantial portions are paraphrased without documentation or are identical to published or unpublished material.
3. Cheating: The improper use of books, notes, another student’s tests, or other aids during an examination. It is the responsibility of the student to get approval for the use of such aids prior to the time of the examination, and without such approval they will be considered improper. An examination is defined as any testing situation in which the score will be used for credit in a course.

Failure on a student’s part to live up to this honor code becomes the concern of the appropriate dean and faculty advisor. (It is assumed, however, that any matter of concern in this area between members of the Seminary community will first be dealt with according to the principles of Matthew 18:15–22.) All disciplinary matters are subject to review before a Student Disciplinary Committee. This committee at the Cordova campus is composed of the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, as chairperson, the faculty advisor of the student in question, the president of the Student Council, and one other faculty member. At the Northeast campus, this committee will be appointed by the director of the Northeast campus and will include one student participant.

Due process in dealing with disciplinary problems is primarily for the purpose of protecting the reputation of a student against false or unsupported accusations. The purpose of disciplinary action is always redemptive, with every effort made to help the student involved to gain insight into his or her own needs and motivations as a potential minister in Christian service. Where there is evidence of personality and character weaknesses that would make it unwise for a student to continue in preparation for the ministry, the student is given counsel to help him or her see that fact.

A Student Disciplinary Committee will handle all cases referred to it by the appropriate dean and will be the appellate body for decisions made by the dean that are appealed by the student. The committee will handle any case involving the possible dismissal of a student, and dismissal may only take place by action of the faculty. The student will receive a written statement of charges against him or her. He or she may be accompanied by a personal representative, may bring witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may choose not to answer any of the questions directed to him or her. If either the Student Disciplinary Committee or the student deems the advice of a lawyer necessary, such a person may give any advice he or she believes pertinent; but he or she may not enter into the proceedings and/or deliberations of a Student Disciplinary Committee.

Should the situation warrant it, the student may be given a warning, a disciplinary probation, a required leave of absence, or dismissal Appeal of any action of the Student Disciplinary Committee may be made to the faculty in writing. Further appeal may be made after the faculty’s decision to the president of the Seminary. Such an appeal must be in writing, and a personal interview will be granted with the appeal.

Presidential Prerogative

As the final administrative authority for the Seminary, the president has, and must have, the authority to act in emergencies without consultation with any other person or judiciary and suspend or dismiss any student who is acting in a manner which he feels is contrary to and dangerous to the Seminary as an institution or to persons belonging to or associated with the Seminary community.

Student Dress Code

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to provide an atmosphere of respect for faculty and staff, students, and friends of the Seminary. Preparation for ministry is a high calling and all members of the Seminary family are subject to constant scrutiny. For this reason, MABTS has established a standard of dress for the Seminary community that is conducive to worship, serious study, and development of each student’s calling to ministry. It is therefore necessary that all students be dressed and groomed both modestly and in good taste in accordance with Seminary policy while on campus.

Women: Women are to wear modest dresses, skirts and blouses (be careful of the neckline), or dress slacks (no jeans, cargo pants, casual pants, casual capris, or shorts) with appropriate shoes (no athletic shoes or flip-flops). Earrings are permitted for female students only. Body piercing is not allowed for female students.
Men: While there are occasional special days when men will be asked to wear a coat and tie, normally men are to dress in a “business professional” manner—neat slacks (no jeans, cargo pants, or shorts), belt and collared shirt (no logos, pictures, or screen prints), which is to be tucked into their slacks. Men are to wear dress shoes or nice casual shoes (no athletic shoes, sandal-type shoes, or flip flops) and socks. Hair should be clean and neatly combed, and facial hair should be neatly trimmed. Hats are not allowed. Earrings and/or body piercings are not allowed for male students. Neatness, cleanliness and propriety are expected. Flagrant deviations from these guidelines will be addressed in the following manner:

1. First offense: warning from the Dean of Men or Dean of Women
2. Second offense: warning from the Dean of Men or Dean of Women; student will be asked to leave the Seminary campus and may return upon changing into clothes which are deemed appropriate for class.
3. Third offense: meeting between the student and the Student Disciplinary committee.

- All numbered parking spaces are reserved. Unauthorized vehicles parked in numbered spaces are subject to towing at the expense of the owner.

- Parking decals are required for all student vehicles parked on campus, including housing. Decals may be obtained in the Campus Life office at no cost.
- Handicap parking spaces are reserved for vehicles with an authorized handicap permit issued by any local or state governmental agency. Unauthorized vehicles in handicapped spaces are subject to fines and/or towing at the expense of the owner.

  Second offense: $5.00 fine

(MASH) are available from the Housing Manager from 8:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Residents should secure a temporary parking permit for any overnight guest arriving after office hours. Vehicles parked at housing without a temporary parking permit or a student decal are subject to fines and/or towing at the expense of the owner.

Identification Cards

An ID card is available to students at the opening of the academic year. This card is necessary for entrance in certain areas of the campus, library use, and to register chapel attendance in the chapel. The fee to replace an ID card is $6.00 and the card may be obtained in the Campus Life office.

All faculty, staff, and students must have the Campus Life issued MABTS identification card on their person while on campus. This is a safety precaution that will aid MABTS security in maintaining campus safety and it will give the holder access to all exterior doors on campus.

Viewing Grades

Students may view grades at the end of a semester or mini-term by logging in to SonisWeb at www.mabtssonisweb.com. To login, you must have your student ID and PIN, which was issued during the first semester as a student.

Mid-America Student Housing (MASH) (Cordova Campus)

Guidelines have been established concerning Mid-America Student Housing (MASH), located in Cordova, TN. Seminary students should be aware of the following regarding Student Housing:

Requirements for Eligibility

In order to reside in MASH, one must maintain enrollment as an associate, bachelor, or master level student for at least six semester hours. Doctoral students must be continuously enrolled in their program (up to seven years). If a student fails to meet these minimum requirements, he or she will be given thirty days to vacate the premises.

Apartments

The apartments may be rented by one or more associate-, master-, or doctoral-level students at the rates shown below. Furniture and utilities are not included; however, students have freedom to choose whom they live with. Renting an apartment consists of a yearly lease.

Dorm Rooms

MASH offers dorm rates for undergraduate housing. Dorm rooms are the only available housing option for unmarried bachelor students. These apartments include furniture and utilities; however, your roommates will be assigned. The single dorm room consists of a personal room and a shared bathroom. The master room consists of a personal room and a personal bathroom. Dorm rooms will not house more than three students at a time. Renting a dorm room consists of a 10-month lease (August–May).

Availability

A waiting list will be established when MASH is fully occupied. The waiting list will consist of applicants according to the date in which the student submitted his or her housing application. A prospective student will not be added to this list until he or she receives approval to enroll in the Seminary.

Housing Account and Rental Payment

Residents of MASH must keep their rental account current. If a student fails to make his or her monthly rent payment repeatedly, he or she will be given a thirty-day notice to vacate the premises.

Registration

At the beginning of each term, students will be allowed to register for classes only after clearance from the Housing Office (housing account must be current).

Graduation

Residents must settle their housing accounts to be eligible to graduate. In the event a student owes rent, fees, or other charges for student housing, he or she will not be able to participate during the graduation ceremony and will not graduate. Upon graduating from MABTS, residents of MASH will be given 60 days to vacate the premises. A thirty-day written notice is required in the Housing Office by the first of the month at least one month prior to move-out. To request staying past graduation you must fill out a housing extension form and return it to the Campus Life Office, to be reviewed and presented to the EAC.
Registration, Graduation, and Fee Payment

At the beginning of each semester, students will be allowed to register for classes after clearance from the following offices: Housing office (housing account must be current); Practical Missions (registration for practical missions assignments); Campus Life (picture taken for Student ID); the business office (tuition is to be paid in full or a payment plan set-up prior to registration); and the Library (library fines are to be paid and overdue books returned).

Students who have not settled all of their accounts (i.e. for tuition and fees, library fees and books, and housing rent and fees) will not be able to register for classes until payment is made. Students preparing for graduation who have not settled all of their accounts at least one week prior to graduation will not be allowed to graduate until the next semester after payment is made.

Policy Regarding Use of Students as Subjects for Research

Occasionally we have requests to use our students in research projects. The following policy has been constructed for such requests:

1. Before any request involving the use of MABTS students as research subjects may be approved, the person/group must:
   A. Submit a copy of the full proposal of the study, including both the objectives and the design; and
   B. Indicate compliance with the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare’s (DHEW) “Policy on Protection of Human Subjects” (q.v.).
2. Research projects will not be demeaning to seminary students.
3. Research projects and/or methods will not be contrary to the doctrinal, ethical, or moral position of the Seminary.
4. Only requests from schools holding regional or professional accreditation will be considered.
5. Care will be taken to see that the Seminary as an institution and/or the student will not be overburdened by such requests. Priority will be given to requests from MABTS students.

Protection of Human Rights

The Policy on Protection of Human Subjects, adopted by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, calls for:

1. A statement describing the risks to the subject;
2. A statement of the expected benefits from the research to the subjects and to the advancement of knowledge, as well as supportive arguments that the benefits justify the risks;
3. Verification that the rights and welfare of subjects, especially their anonymity, will be adequately protected; and
4. A complete statement illustrating the method to be used for obtaining written consent of each subject, which will include:
   A. A fair explanation of the procedures followed and their purposes, including identification of any procedures that are experimental;
   B. A description of any attendant discomforts and risks reasonably to be expected;
   C. A description of any benefits reasonably to be expected;
   D. An offer to answer any inquiries concerning the procedures; and
   E. An instruction that the person is free to withdraw his or her consent and to discontinue his or her participation in the project or activity at any time without prejudice to the subject.

Solicitation

It is the policy of MABTS that no sales representative of any kind be allowed to solicit business among the student body on campus or student housing. Furthermore, it is the policy of MABTS that no list of student names or addresses is made available to such individuals for off-campus solicitation. If such a person or sales representative feels that his or her product or service is so worthy that exception should be made to the above stated policy, he or she may apply in writing for permission to present said product on the campus. Such an application should be very specific in stating why it is felt an exception should be made and should be submitted to the office of the director of Campus Life. It should be recognized that any exception to the established policy is just that (an exception) and does not constitute any endorsement of the product or service on the part of the committee or the Seminary administration.

Educational Rights and Privacy

MABTS is subject to federal legislation popularly known as the Buckley Amendment, establishing rights and duties with respect to the education records of students attending MABTS. It is our intention to fully comply with this legislation and to protect the rights of students. These rights include the right to (1) inspect and review the student’s records, (2) request an amendment to the student’s records to ensure that they are correct and otherwise not in violation of the student’s right to privacy; (3) consent to the disclosure of information to other individuals or entities, (4) file a complaint with the OCR to seek redress if the Seminary fails to comply with the requirements of the Act; and (5) obtain a copy of the school’s policy.

For purposes of this legislation, MABTS has designated as directory information the following information about students: name, spouse’s name, address, telephone listing, email address, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, class schedule, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student. Questions about the application or of the provisions of the Buckley Amendment should be directed to the Academic Records office. A period of two weeks following the beginning of each semester is provided during which a student may request that directory information not be released. Any request must be submitted in writing to the Academic Records Office.

FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of aspects of a student’s educational record that are not considered ‘directory’ information. Educational records include financial aid, student account records, and academic records, which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student, except to the extent that FERPA authorized disclosure without consent. For this reason, it is necessary for the Campus Life office at Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary to obtain permission from a student in order to release financial and academic information not excluded by FERPA laws. Copies of FERPA are available in the Campus Life office, Admissions office, Registrar’s office, and the Dean of Men/Dean of Women’s Office.

Students may complete the Consent for Student Release of Information form in the Campus Life office with the name and relationship or any individuals they wish to be able to access their information. Authorization for an individual can also be revoked at any time by completing the same form in the Campus Life office.

Veterans’ Education Benefits and Records

MABTS maintains educational benefit records of veteran students in confidentiality and does not release records to unauthorized personnel without the written consent of the student. Personnel authorized to view records are: (1) a Veterans Administration Education representative who annually views the file of at least one student who receives VA educational benefits, and (2) a Tennessee or New York Higher Education Commission representative who reviews all files of students receiving VA educational benefits.

(Cordova Campus)

United States military service members, Veterans, and dependents of veterans who are eligible for Veterans education benefits may apply to the Academic Vice President’s Office to defer payment of tuition for the current term. Application must be received on or before the final registration day of the current term. If approved, tuition must then be paid to the business office no later than the last day of the current academic term. This is in conjunction with the following information from the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

Service members, Veterans, and dependents of veterans who are eligible beneficiaries of U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs education benefits or other governmentally funded educational assistance, subject to the conditions and guidelines set forth in Tennessee Code Annotated 49-7-104 as amended, may elect, upon formal application, to defer payment of required tuition and fees until the final day of the semester for which the deferment has been requested. Application for the deferment must be made no later than 14 days after the beginning of the semester, and the amount of the deferment shall not exceed the total monetary benefits to be received for the semester.

Students who have been granted deferments are expected to make timely payments on their outstanding tuition and fees balance once education benefits are being delivered, and eligibility for such deferment shall terminate if the student fails to abide by any applicable rule or regulation, or to act in good faith in making timely payments. This notice is published pursuant to Public Chapter 279, Acts of 2003, effective July 1, 2003.

On-Campus Crime Statistics (Cordova Campus)

MABTS is subject to Tennessee State legislation known as the College and University Security Information Act, whereby all institutions of higher education are required to report and maintain crime statistic records for on-campus crime. These records are maintained in the Security Office and are reported to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) through the TBI Crime Statistics Unit (CSU). These statistics are required to be made available to MABTS employees, current students, and prospective students.

Institutional Guidelines on AIDS

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary recognizes the serious threat to our society posed by the AIDS epidemic. These guidelines are adopted to guide our community in a Christian response by:

1. Encouraging a redemptive response to a major health crisis;
2. Developing a better understanding of AIDS;
3. Developing necessary and appropriate actions and procedures to prevent the spread of AIDS; and
4. Assisting those whose lives might be affected by AIDS.
   A. Christian Response—The Seminary will be guided by a firm commitment to biblical teachings and all information and guidelines will be presented in a manner that affirms the importance of Christian ethics.

B. Medical Knowledge—The Seminary will be guided by the latest and best medical knowledge concerning AIDS as a contagious disease and its prevention and treatment. The recommendations of federal and state health agencies and the American College Health Association will be sources of information.

C. Education—The Seminary will make available to students, employees, and their families current information concerning AIDS and will also include such information in the orientation processes for students and employees. Individuals will also be informed of their responsibility, if they know themselves to be antibody positive for the AIDS virus, to report this fact to the Campus Life office or to their private physician, in order to obtain treatment and consultation for the protection of themselves and others. Individuals will also be strongly encouraged to seek counseling in order to assist them in dealing with the consequences of the disease.

D. Confidentiality—The Seminary will, to the extent legally and medically permissible, maintain the confidentiality of information concerning the identity of individuals with AIDS or the AIDS virus.

E. Student or Employment Status—The Seminary will not base enrollment or employment decisions on the existence of AIDS or the AIDS antibody, so long as the individuals are able to function fully in their academic programs or employee roles.

F. Infection—The Seminary will encourage any individual with an infectious disease to seek medical evaluation. Individuals evidencing special susceptibility to the consequences of infections or special risk of spreading an infectious disease, including AIDS, will be required to seek medical evaluation of their condition, and their permitted activities at the Seminary will be determined based on the medical evaluation and recommendations applicable to their individual case. The determination of whether special conditions exist will be made on a case-by-case basis utilizing the latest and best medical advice.

G. Safety Guidelines—The Seminary will adopt safety guidelines as proposed by the United States Public Health Service for the handling of blood and body fluids for all persons, not just those known to have infectious diseases.

1) Current knowledge indicates that students or employees with any form of HIV infection do not pose a health risk to other students or employees in an academic setting. ("General Statement on Institutional Response to AIDS," American College Health Association, Revised January 1988.)

2) The Public Health Service states that there is no risk created by living in the same place as an infected person; caring for an AIDS patient; eating food handled by an infected person; being coughed or sneezed upon by an infected person; casual kissing; or swimming in a pool with an infected person. (Surgeon General’s Report on Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, US Department of Health and Human Services, October 22, 1986).
3) The American College Health Association statement indicates that persons with AIDS and other diseases that compromise the immune system are especially susceptible to infections.
4) The Surgeon General’s report states that a special risk might exist if an individual loses control of body secretions or knowingly and willingly exposes others in ways that are known to spread the infection.

Internet Access Policy

Purpose of Internet Access at MABTS

As part of the Seminary’s commitment to meet the educational, informational, and research needs of the seminary community, we are pleased to offer on-campus access to the Internet for faculty, staff, students, and alumni. The Internet allows users to connect to resources outside those available at MABTS and its library. MABTS does not have control over information available on the Internet. The information accessed there may be reliable and current, or it may be inaccurate and obsolete. It is up to the user to determine the accuracy of information obtained from the Internet. When using the Internet for research students should verify the information with other sources when possible.

Some sites or information accessible through the Internet may be inappropriate, controversial, or offensive. For this and other reasons, we have developed the following guidelines for the acceptable usage of Internet access.

Acceptable Usage Guidelines

The Computer Lab at the Cordova campus is equipped with sixteen computers, accessible to the Internet, and a HP Laser Jet printer. The Computer Lab at the Northeast campus is equipped with six computers, accessible to the Internet, and one HP Laser Jet printer. The computer lab is for the use of all MABTS students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

1. Computers and network resources at MABTS are property of the Seminary and are provided for Seminary-related business. Therefore, use of the Internet for unproductive Web surfing, participation in online chat rooms or other non-Seminary related activities is inappropriate and prohibited.
2. Because of the international and unregulated nature of the Internet, users must take great care in the type of information accessed and web sites visited. Students should always be aware of their personal testimony of Christ, their obligation to follow His lordship, and the ethical and moral guidelines set forth in the catalog, and the Student Supplement Handbook. Students should not distribute or access any information that is offensive, obscene, harassing, sexist, racist, malicious, or slanderous.

3. The Seminary seeks to protect and preserve the privacy of personal communications. Users of Seminary computer equipment should be aware, however, that electronic communications by nature cannot be made entirely private.

4. Do not perform any activity on the Seminary’s computer systems or on the Internet that would degrade the performance or otherwise harm any Seminary computer system.

5. Internet access is available to valid library patrons using the public access catalog computers in the library. Information retrieved from the Internet using these computers should be saved to a flash drive or CD only, not the computers’ hard drives. The Internet may be accessed on these computers during regular library hours for a period of thirty minutes per day. A patron may continue to use the computer for another thirty minutes if there is no one waiting for a turn.

6. Use of the Internet is a privilege, not a right, and violation of the Seminary’s Internet access policies will result in loss of Internet and/or computer use, and possible disciplinary action.

Priority of Lab Use

Seminary computing equipment is primarily for academic use and scheduled classes have priority of lab use.

Software and Configuration

1. Possession of any software or hardware used to corrupt files, introduce viruses, or otherwise harm the network is prohibited in the facilities of MABTS.

2. Users may not attempt to install any software on MABTS computers.

3. Users may not attempt to alter the configuration of any computer, network server, or network component anywhere on the MABTS network.

Limitations of Usage

The viewing or distribution of pornographic or other inappropriate (offensive) material on the MABTS computer network will result in suspension of the individual’s computer lab rights and referral to the appropriate dean for possible suspension or dismissal from MABTS.

1. Users may not play games on any computer in the lab.

2. No one shall use MABTS resources to transmit abusive, threatening, or harassing material, chain letters, spam, or communications prohibited by state or federal laws.
3. Computing equipment is not to be moved without the authorization of the director of Information Services. Do not stretch the cords or place the keyboard on your lap. Never put anything on top of the monitors. Do not vandalize or otherwise change any physical or software configuration.

4. Users may not solicit goods or services, electronically or otherwise, using MABTS computing facilities or equipment without the consent of the director of Information Services. Users may be required to reimburse MABTS for damage to Seminary equipment at the discretion of the Executive Administration Committee.

5. (Cordova campus) Access into Room A-112 is prohibited to all users unless authorized by the director of Information Services.

Laptops in the Classroom

The use of laptops in the classroom is subject to approval by the professor of the class. Normally, laptops are used for taking notes or making class presentations. Misuse of laptops (surfing the Internet, listening to music, playing games, etc.) can result in the loss of this privilege.

Individual Responsibilities

1. There is no food or drink allowed in the computer lab at any time.
2. Users should back up their work frequently on their own flash drive or CD. MABTS is not responsible for any work lost due to any system malfunction or power outage.
3. MABTS does not provide paper for printing purposes. The responsibility to acquire paper rests solely upon the user.

Lab Hours

(Cordova Campus)

1. When classes are in session, the Computer Lab operation hours are 7:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m.
2. The Computer Lab will be closed from 11:00–11:45 a.m. for chapel (Tuesday and Thursday).
3. There are 24 computers in the Library with full access during Library hours. Be sure to save your work on a flash drive or CD rather than the hard drive.
(Northeast Campus)

1. When classes are in session, the Computer Lab operation hours are 7:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m. as well as on evenings when night classes meet.
2. The Computer Lab will be closed from 10:50–11:30 a.m. for chapel (Wednesday and Thursday).

MABTS Policy on Intellectual Property

The Seminary encourages the development, writing, invention, and production of intellectual property designed to improve the productivity of the Seminary and/or to enhance the teaching/learning environment.

A Seminary employee or student owns all rights to copyrightable or patentable independent works created by that employee or student without Seminary support. Unless otherwise provided in a rights agreement, the Seminary owns all rights to a copyrightable or patentable work created by an employee with Seminary support. Students may not use Seminary equipment or resources for works for hire. Both students and the Seminary retain portfolio rights to the works that may result from student assignments.

Intellectual and creative works that can be copyrighted or patented, such as literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works, computer software, multimedia presentations, inventions, etc., are intellectual property. The ownership of a copyright or patent resulting from the development of intellectual property and any rewards or recognition attributed to the copyright or patent will be determined according to the following conditions:

A. Ownership resides with the employee or student if the following criteria are met:
   1) The work is not the product of a specific contract or assignment made as a result of employment with the Seminary.
   2) The work is not prepared within the scope of the individual’s Seminary job duties.
   3) The work involves insignificant use of Seminary facilities, time, and/or other resources and is not derivative of any other Seminary owned copyright.

B. Ownership resides with the Seminary if the above criteria are not met and if the following criteria apply:
   1) The work is prepared within the scope of an employee’s job duties.
   2) The work is the product of a specific contract or assignment made in the course of the employee’s employment with the Seminary.
   3) The development of the work involved significant facilities, time, and/or other resources of the Seminary including, but not limited to, Seminary personnel, salary supplement, leave with pay, equipment, or other materials or financial assistance, or is derivative of any other Seminary-owned copyright.
   4) Notwithstanding these provisions, a student retains portfolio rights to works created by the student as a class assignment.
   5) The Seminary and the employee or the Seminary and the student may enter into an agreement for an equitable arrangement for joint ownership, sharing of royalties, or reimbursement to the Seminary for its costs and support.

When it can be foreseen that commercially valuable property will be created, the Seminary and the employee or the Seminary and the student should negotiate an agreement for ownership and the sharing of benefits prior to creation of the property. In all such cases, the agreement shall provide that the Seminary will have a perpetual license to use the work without compensation to the employee or student for such use.

6) If an employee is granted full or partial leave with pay (e.g., release time or educational leave), to write, develop, produce, or invent intellectual property, the employee and the Seminary will share in any financial gain, and the school’s share will be negotiated prior to the time the leave is taken.

MASH Rent Guarantee

The MASH rent guarantee is a student benefit that ensures a student’s cost of rent for their size apartment will not increase for the term of the study up to six semesters of continuous enrollment (at least nine hours per semester) and as long as the student abides by the terms of the lease.

Utility Information

Upon move-in, a resident has three days to transfer utilities into his or her name. Should a resident exceed the three days, utilities will be billed back to the resident for his portion of usage. If a second notice is received, a resident will be given notice, and a disconnect order will be turned in to the utility company.

Lease Renewal

At the beginning of the month at least thirty days prior to the end of a lease, residents will schedule a time to renew their lease with the housing manager. If a resident cannot make the scheduled time for signing a new lease, he or she should give the housing manager at least twenty-four hours notice and reschedule the lease signing.
Breaking a Lease

Any time a family or roommate wants to move out of an apartment before the end of the lease, several costs may be applied to the resident’s account. A thirty-day written notice also is required.

The costs:
- Forfeiture of Security Deposit
- Redecoration Fee - $350.00/family; $175.00/person when there are two roommates; and $125.00/person when there are three roommates
- Termination Fee - two months full rent for families and two months of a roommate’s rent portion

If a roommate decides to move out of an apartment prior to the termination of the lease, he or she must have each of his or her roommates sign that the resident who is moving has kept his portion of the apartment in good condition. By having the remaining roommates sign, the resident is released from an obligation to give restitution for damages to the apartment beyond what is assessed by the property manager during the walk-through.

Move-Out Procedures

1. When a resident is ready to give notice or move out, he or she should be sure the decision is final. The next person on the waiting list will be notified of a move-in date as soon as a notice to vacate is received.
2. Prior to vacating, a thirty-day written notice is required on or before the first of the month. Residents will be responsible for rent until the apartment keys are returned to the housing manager.
3. The Intent to Vacate notice is provided to the property manager located in the community center, Building 1 at MASH. If a resident does not use the Intent to Vacate form, he or she should provide the date he or she will be vacating, the reason he or she is vacating, and a forwarding address and phone number so that the security deposit can be mailed after move-out.
4. Upon providing a notice to vacate, it is the resident’s responsibility to schedule a walk-through with the property manager so he or she can be informed of any damages or further cleaning that may be needed before vacating.
5. After a walk-through, a resident should hand deliver the apartment keys and gate key to the Property Manager. Do not leave keys with another student or leave them for LEDIC to pick-up. Failure to return keys will result in a $20.00 apartment key charge and a $50.00 gate key charge being deducted from the security deposit. Should a resident leave after normal business hours, keys may be placed in the mail drop slot. Please make sure the keys are labeled with the resident’s name and apartment number. A resident is not considered moved-out until the keys have been returned and the resident will be responsible for rent until that time.
6. After the actual move-out date, the security deposit will be held for thirty days. The security deposit will be processed for a refund if the apartment is left in good condition and all final utility bills have been paid. Any damage to the apartment will be deducted from the security deposit. Should the damages exceed the amount of the security deposit, the resident will be billed for the difference.

Sub-leasing Policy

It is expressly understood and agreed that a lease in MASH shall not be assigned nor shall the premises be sublet or transferred in any fashion without the written consent of the landlord, which consent shall not be considered as a waiver of the agreement as to any subsequent assignment, transfer or subletting, nor shall any such consent release in any manner said primary resident from the obligations of the agreement. It if further understood and agreed if a lease is executed by more than one resident, each resident will become individually as well as jointly liable for all of the obligations herein stated. Resident covenants and agrees no persons other than the immediate family or co-signer of the lease shall be allowed to take up legal residence, or to make their home, on the premises.

Pet Policy

Residents may not have pets of any kind living or visiting in their apartments, except a small bowl of goldfish (or other small fish) or a small bird kept in a birdcage (no parrots). This policy is a practical consideration for maintenance and child safety issues and for minimizing disturbances to other residents. If a resident are found with a pet living or visiting in your apartment, her or she will be responsible to pay for new carpet, padding, and labor for the entire apartment.

Requirements for Eligibility

In order to reside in MASH, a student must maintain enrollment as an associate-, bachelor-, or master-level student in at least six semester hours. Doctoral students must be continuously enrolled in their program (up to seven years). If a student fails to meet these minimum requirements, he or she will be given thirty days to vacate the premises. Students may submit a request to continue living in housing, which will be evaluated and decided upon by the Executive Administrative Committee (EAC).
Availability

A waiting list will be established when MASH is fully occupied. The waiting list will consist of applicants according to the date in which the student submitted his or her housing application. A prospective student will not be added to this list until he or she receives approval to enroll in the Seminary. For those who are in need of a roommate, a list of prospects is maintained in the Campus Life office at the Seminary and by the property manager in the housing office.

Housing Account and Rental Payment

Residents of MASH must keep their rental account current. If a student fails to make his or her monthly rent payment repeatedly, he or she will be given a thirty-day notice to vacate the premises.

Graduation

Residents must settle their housing accounts to be eligible to graduate. In the event a student owes rent, fees, or other charges for student housing, he or she will not be able to participate in the graduation ceremony and will not graduate. Upon graduating from MABTS, residents of MASH will be given sixty days to vacate the premises. A thirty-day written notice is required in the housing office by the first of the month at least one month prior to move-out. To stay past graduation you must fill out a housing extension form and return it to the Campus Life office, to be reviewed and presented to the EAC.

Residents’ Council

The Student Council housing representative serves as the chair of the Resident Council. He or she plans, organizes, and leads monthly council meetings with the building representatives at the Seminary.

The housing representative serves as the chair of the Resident Council for the year he or she serves on the Student Council. He or she may serve as a building representative prior to or following his or her service on the Student Council.

Building representatives are appointed by the director of Campus Life. Each building of eight apartments will have one representative. Each building of more than eight apartments will have two representatives. The director of Campus Life will accept recommendations when a position is vacant.

Building representatives serve two primary purposes: They are responsible for monitoring activity on MASH property, similar to a neighborhood watch; and they are responsible for communicating their observations and/or reports received from other students to the Resident Council. Resident Council members also will assist the housing manager as required.

Resident Guidelines

Emergency Procedures

In an emergency situation, residents should exit their apartments in an orderly manner and in single file until they are a safe distance away from the buildings. In the event of a tornado, residents should stand in a doorway away from windows.

Safety Guidelines

All student housing residents are expected to abide by the following guidelines in order to insure the safety and enjoyment of everyone:

1. Parents must supervise their children at all times, especially when they are outside. The only exception is when parents have made arrangements with fellow residents to have their children supervised. Ultimately, however, the parents are responsible.
2. Children must not sit or stand on, kick, or drop things into the air conditioning units.
3. Sidewalk chalk is for sidewalks only (excluding the mailbox area). It is not to be used to write or draw on the side of buildings.
4. Standing or bouncing on the automated gate at the front of the property is absolutely prohibited.
5. Playing in or around the dumpster unit is unsafe and therefore is not permitted.
6. Speeding through the parking lot is prohibited and will result in a fine. Residents are to abide by the posted speed limit.
7. Children are not to leave their bikes, scooters, skateboards, or other toys on the lawn, the sidewalk, or in the street. These items are to be put away when not in use.
8. Children are not to play in the street or in the parking lot. The playground, ball field, and yard areas are available for that purpose.
9. Children are not to ride their bikes through the breezeways of apartment buildings; this could result in injury of someone entering or exiting an apartment. Bike riders must obey the stop signs.
10. All bikes are to be registered in the housing manager’s office.
11. Be sure to break cardboard boxes down before putting them in the trash compactor. Televisions and furniture should never be placed in the trash compactor. Doing so causes the compactor to jam and when televisions are crushed they can ignite even when unplugged.
12. There should be absolutely no furniture, electronics, or other items left outside anywhere on the grounds. If it is not permitted to go in the compactor, residents are responsible for disposing of the items. Please do not leave items by the mailboxes, compactor, or elsewhere.

It is our foremost desire that your children are safe, so please make every effort to work toward that end as well. It is also important for us to be good stewards of what we’ve been given, so it is important to take care of the outdoor and indoor features of the property.

If damage occurs additional fines may be assessed to a resident’s account.

Student Discipline

The Seminary is dedicated to training students who are committed to Christ and vocational Christian ministry. This type of student greatly reduces the occasion of disciplinary problems. The locus of authority in dealing with discipline problems is the faculty through the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, and a Student Disciplinary Committee.

It is the desire of MABTS to be responsive to the needs of the student in all areas of his or her life. As a school we have established policies and procedures in both academic and financial areas as well as personal, moral/ethical, and spiritual development. These standards are to be met while on campus, at student housing, or off campus. Additional information regarding student discipline and the judicial process is published in the Student Supplement Handbook.

Sexual Harassment Policy

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary respects the personhood of all individuals, regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or religion. The Seminary, therefore, will not tolerate the abuse of individuals in regard to these matters.

No student, employee, or resident of student housing is expected to tolerate unwelcome and unsolicited sexual overtures or conduct, whether physical or verbal. This includes, but is not limited to, offensive jokes, comments, innuendos, and other sexually oriented statements.

If any student, employee, or resident of student housing feels that he or she has been subjected to any type of harassment, the offense is to be reported to the president’s office within forty-eight hours. A written complaint should include the name of the person involved, the specific nature of the offense, and the date that it occurred. Additional information regarding the procedures for handling sexual harassment complaints is published in the Student Supplement Handbook.

Residents’ Dress Code

Neatness, cleanliness, and propriety are expected. Modest dress is an expectation of residents of student housing. If immodest dress becomes an issue at student housing, it will be addressed on an individual basis by the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women.

Parking

- Parking decals are required for all student vehicles parked on campus, including housing. Decals may be obtained in the Campus Life office at no cost.
- Handicap parking spaces are reserved for vehicles with an authorized handicap permit issued by any local or state governmental agency. Unauthorized vehicles in handicapped spaces are subject to fines and/or towing at the expense of the owner.
- Temporary parking permits for overnight guests at MASH are available from the housing manager from 8:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Residents should secure a temporary parking permit for any overnight guest arriving after office hours. Vehicles parked at housing without a temporary parking permit or a student parking decal are subject to fines and/or towing at the expense of the owner.
- Students who have a vehicle that is out of commission more than one week should notify the housing manager or they will be subject to a fine. After the initial notification, students should update the housing manager about the schedule and progress of making repairs. After a total of thirty days the vehicle must be removed from the property or it will be towed at the expense of the owner.
- Vehicle repairs are allowed on student housing property as long as vehicles are not placed on blocks or raised by jacks any longer than twenty-four hours.

Linens

Students who live in the furnished apartments are responsible for supplying their own bed linens and towels.

Residence Room Searches

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary reserves the right to search any residence room at anytime under the direction of the Dean of Men or Dean of Women.
Room Assignments

Room assignments (for bachelor-level students who live in the furnished apartments) are made at the direction of the Campus Life office. Students may not occupy any room without approval. MABTS administration reserves the right to change room assignments during the academic year, if in its judgment it is beneficial both to MABTS and to the student.

Respect for Other MASH Residents

Because Mid-America Student Housing also is the place of residence for master-level students and their families, Bachelor students must seek to respect the family atmosphere. Students should be cautious in the parking lot as many children play outside. They should also keep noise and activity to a minimum after 10 p.m.

Reckless Behavior

Any behavior which creates a risk of danger to one’s self or others in the Mid-America community is strictly prohibited. This includes but is not limited to throwing/launching/setting fire to objects, and disclosing or giving access to Student Housing to unauthorized persons.

Hazing

Hazing in any form is prohibited by Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary and Tennessee law. This regulation also governs off-campus initiation activities. Hazing is to be interpreted as any activity that endangers the physical safety of a person, produces mental or physical discomfort, causes embarrassment, fright, humiliation or ridicule, or degrades the individual whether it is intentional or unintentional. It is defined as doing any act or coercing another to do any act of initiation of a student into an organization that causes or creates a substantial risk bringing mental, emotional, or physical harm to a person.

It is understood as any forced or required intentional or negligent action, situation, or activity that recklessly places any person at risk of physical injury, mental distress or personal indignity. All initiation activities are subject to the approval of the director of Campus Life. Violators will also be subject to state fines and/or imprisonment.

Visitors

Male students and female students are not permitted to have guests of the opposite gender spend the night in their apartment or furnished room.
Roommates

All students living with roommates in the furnished apartments or regular apartments have:

- The right to read and study free from undue interference in one's room. Unreasonable noise and other distractions inhibit this right.
- The right to sleep without undue disturbance from noise, guests, or a roommate, etc.
- The right to expect that a roommate will respect one's personal belongings.
- The right to a clean environment in which to live.
- The right to free access to one's room and facilities without pressure from a roommate.
- The right to personal privacy.
- The right to expect a roommate's guests to respect your rights, the rights of other residents, and the outreach policy.
- The right to address grievances. Student supervisors and student services personnel are available for assistance in settling conflicts.
- The right to be free from fear and intimidation, physical, and/or emotional harm and racial or sexual harassment.
- The right to respect at all times.

Use of the Community Center

The community center of Mid-America Student Housing is for the use of students, staff, faculty, and trustees of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary. Use by any other group or organization must receive permission from the Executive Administration Committee of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary. The furnishings provided by friends of the seminary are both beautiful and functional and are committed to the glory of God. Those using the building should do so with care.

- There is a $25.00 refundable usage fee for using the community center. After the community center is cleaned and it has been checked for damages, the fee will be refunded.
- Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary will provide no childcare at any time for events held in the community center.
- The person or group scheduling the event will be responsible for setting up for the event and cleaning up/taking down tables and chairs after the event.
- Use of the community center must be reserved by completing and submitting a Calendar Request Form to the housing manager no less than two weeks prior to the event. The Campus Life office will notify residents concerning approval once the request has been decided upon by the calendaring committee.
- No pets will be allowed in the community center at any time.
- Failure to have the community center cleaned and vacated by the posted closing time may result in partial loss of the deposit paid.
• Furniture and accessories of the community center are not to be moved or relocated for any reason.
• The community center is a no-smoking facility. The person or group scheduling an event is responsible for ensuring that guests do not smoke at the MASH campus.
• Any event scheduled for Saturday evening must conclude by 10:00 p.m. due to Sunday morning activities.

  ° An individual or group may only make three reservations in a three-month period.
  ° Events sponsored by MABTS take precedence on the calendar.

MASH Commuter Apartment

The commuter apartment at MASH is intended for the use of married and single students who would like to stay in a furnished apartment on a short-term basis. Students enrolled in doctoral, master, bachelor, or associate programs that plan to spend two or three nights a week in Cordova to complete coursework may rent a room or portion of a room.

One three-bedroom apartment has been set-aside for this purpose and once it is occupied, students will need to make other arrangements. There will be a maximum of two students per room and six students total. For price information, please contact the Campus Life office. The application for using the commuter unit is available on the MABTS website.
Missionary Housing

MASH has set aside six apartments to be used primarily for stateside missionaries. They are on a first come first served basis; however, MABTS graduates that are IMB and NAMB missionaries have first opportunity. If there are still open units we will rent them to other MABTS graduates. A missionary housing request form, available on the MABTS website, must be filled out, sent to the Campus Life office and approved. At that time, a move in date is coordinated with the property manager. All procedures and policies in this handbook are to be followed.
