

Student Achievement

In its Policy on Institutional Obligations for Public Disclosures, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) requires that institutions publish "statements of its goals for student achievement and the success of students in achieving those goals." Core Requirement (CR) 8.1 (Student Achievement) requires institutions to disclose such information during the Fifth-Year Interim Report and the decennial. Reaffirmations of accreditation. The Disclosure below, by Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary (MABTS), is intended to satisfy SACSCOC policy requirements in between standard compliance certifications.
